Key Concepts

The Bible depicts the great controversy in terms of a conflict between two radically opposite forces, such as light versus darkness or truth versus lies. True, the side of evil clamors for a compromise with the truth, for such compromise is evil's only chance of survival. The side of evil seeks to secure its survival at any cost in order that it might destroy that which is good or of God. God, however, who is the Source of truth and light, will never compromise.

SABBATH BLESSINGS

From Sea Edge: The breakers make the beach beautiful without and within. Likewise the outpouring of the love of God upon my life—the eternal, endless energy of His own person—purifies my character and beautifies my behavior. The cleansing of the beach is one of the special secrets of the sea. And the cleansing of my soul is one of the greatest mysteries of God's love for me—a love so great it stills my soul, it humbles my heart, it subdues my spirit. Philip Keller

One Talent, Used Faithfully Will Gain Other Talents

God has not given talents to merely a chosen few, but to everyone He has committed some peculiar gift to be used in His service. All that we are or can be belongs to God. Education, discipline, and skill in every line should be used for Him. . . Whether the amount entrusted is large or small, the Lord requires that His householders do their best. . . It is the faithfulness, the loyalty to God, the loving service rendered, that brings the divine benediction "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou has been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."
